NEW BUSINESS:

Public Hearing regarding Event Horizon LLC for the transfer of a Retail Restaurant Liquor License.

Solicitor Yost – The notice of hearing was published August 10 and August 17 in the Harrisburg Patriot News. It is an economic development transfer.

Steve Dzurainin, Attorney for Event Horizon – Mr. Jim Rafferty, one of the members of Event Horizon, submitted a request on July 11, 2012 asking for a restaurant liquor license to be transferred from Lower Paxton Township to Derry Township. It will be used at a property located at 810 West Chocolate Avenue at the Old Curry Mill. Development plans have already been started. The intent is to use the facility primarily as an upscale restaurant with a bar and some entertainment. The applicant needs the Board's approval to attach the Resolution to the LCB application to go through the transfer process with them.

Solicitor Yost said if there are no questions regarding this then the proposed resolution can be approved at the meeting following this hearing.

ADJOURNMENT

Chairman Abruzzo adjourned the public hearing at 6:45 p.m.
